BENEFIT FEATURE AT WASHINGTON THEATER TONIGHT

When "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," written by Alice Hegan Rice, was published some fifteen years ago, the beauty of the story created a profound impression. It speedily asserted its superiority, and is today looked upon as one of the best sellers in the literary world. This splendid story has been pictured by Paramount as a starring vehicle for Marguerite Clark, and it will be shown at the Washington Theater tonight for the benefit of the Penny Lunch at the First District School.

The book subsequently was dramatized by Ann Crawford Flexner, the well known dramatist and novelist, and it was presented with great success at the Savoy Theater in New York on September 3, 1904. In the picture, the best points of the novel and the play have been incorporated with signal results by Eve Unsell, while the picture was directed by Hugh Ford, who by a coincidence, directed the production of the play fourteen years ago.

In "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," Miss Clark portrays the role of Lovey Mary, a monitor in an orphanage in whose care is placed a child of whose parents she is ignorant, and whom she loves as a brother. This child subsequently is the central figure of an interesting story, the development of which provokes many dramatic situations, and of which Miss Clark makes the most.

Miss Clark is splendidly supported in this picture, Gareth Hughes playing opposite her as Billy Wiggs; Mary Carr is Mrs. Wiggs, and Vivian Ogden has the role of Tabitha Hazy. Little Lawrence Johnson will be seen as Tommy. The cast throughout is of the highest quality.

MORROW LEAVES FOR OTHER APPOINTMENTS

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican nominee for Governor, left this morning for Greenup where he speaks this afternoon and tonight, he will address an audience at Ashland. Mrs. Morrow will remain here for several days as the guest of Mrs. French at her suburban home at Edgemont.

TENANT SHOTS HIS LANDLORD IN BRACKEN

Shooting Affair in Bracken County Gets in Courts—Tenant Held To Grand Jury.

The Augusta Chronicle says: On Thursday morning of last week, Cleve McElfresh shot Pearl F. Day with a shot gun, 94 shots taking effect in his back, but luckily Mr. Day was only painfully wounded. Mr. Day made the following statement as to how the affair occurred:

Mr. McElfresh is a tenant on Mr. Day's farm and the latter had sown grain which he says had been trampled by stock belonging to his tenant, and when he went to see McElfresh, asking him to keep his stock up, a quarrel followed. At the time, McElfresh had a single-barreled shot gun and Day says he told him that he was going to shoot him. Day says he told him he was not armed and asked him not to kill him. By this time Day claims he had reached the public road and was going toward home when he was fired upon at a probable distance of 40 or 50 yards.

The shooting occurred on the road near McElfresh's home, on the Day farm, on pike between Walcott and Johnsonville.

McElfresh was given an examining trial before Acting County Judge P. T. Cook Monday who held him to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $600, which bond he furnished. County Attorney Harrison represented the Commonwealth while Attorney Byron represented Mr. McElfresh. The accused says Mr. Day had his hands in his pocket and he thought he had a revolver, his plea being self-defense.

PEOPLE HERE FROM ALL OVER DISTRICT TO HEAR MORROW

Hon. Ed P. Morrow was very much surprised at our Boys' Band and very much pleased with their concert. While in front of the Central Hotel Mr. Morrow shook the hand of every member of the band. He says it is by far the best band in Kentucky and it may be that the band will furnish music for his inaugural parade in Frankfort.

CITY POLITICS NOW HAS THE BOARDS

Now as the greatest interest in state politics for Maysville has passed except the voting, interest will begin growing in the city races and the fight for election as Councilmen in several of the local wards are expected to warm up in the next few days. Campaigning has begun in many wards.

COURT HOUSE FILLED WITH THROG TO HEAR ED. MORROW

Record Breaking Crowds Hear Morrow and Yazell at Court House Last Night—Interest Is Running High in Mason County.

Every inch of available space in the Court House last night was taken by the great crowd of men and women who gathered there to hear Kentucky issues discussed by Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, the Republican candidate for governor, and Dr. W. S. Yazell, the Republican nominee for Representative from Mason county.

Hon. James M. Collins, was the chairman of the meeting and in a very pleasing manner presented Dr. W. S. Yazell to the large audience. Dr. Yazell's popularity was seen in the great cheers that shook the Court House when he arose. He asked the support of the good people of Mason county in the November election pledging them that he would devote his time and energy to the improvement of his native Kentucky and promised that if he was elected Representative the county would be indeed represented. He pledged his unqualified support to the improvement of Kentucky's Public Schools and to the removal of the public school system from the grip of dirty politics. He also pledged himself to a revision of the state tax laws to make them equitable and just on all classes.

Dr. Yazell presented Hon. Ed P. Morrow introducing him as the next Governor of Kentucky and the popularity of this brilliant young Kentuckian was shown by the loud cheers which went up from the large audience which arose to its feet in enthusiasm.

In opening his address Mr. Morrow paid a beautiful tribute to the lamented Hon. W. D. Cochran and then explained that he had come to Mason county to talk over state problems and not over foreign affairs or League of Nations.

The Stanley-Black administration was touched with unguessed hands. The careless expenditure of money in the department of Public printing, in the establishment of new jobs as "fire putters out," hotel inspectors, dog catchers, etc., was exposed. The Harkness tax compromise and the Bligham tax suit both received attention as did also the State School Book Commission, the "Sore Toe book." The overcharge on geographies to Kentucky school children was exposed. Mr. Morrow showing that geographies sold in Indiana and in Kentucky were the same but for a few changes in words and a different color of back and yet the Kentucky books were considerably higher in price than the Indiana edition.

Mr. Morrow made himself clear as to what he expected to do if elected Governor of the state, pledging a worth while school survey and the endeavor to remove our school affairs from politics. He also pledged himself to stand by good roads and to see that the road funds were spent carefully. He pledged that he would not use the Governor's pardoning power as a political asset and that he stood on his platform which declared for Woman Suffrage.

He said that if he was elected Governor he would take the chair as a free man with clean hands and that if the people of Kentucky entrusted him with their confidence there would be but one man governor and that man would be Ed P. Morrow.

Democrats and Republicans alike said that Mr. Morrow's address was one of the clearest and fairest political speeches that has ever been made in Maysville and by dealing with matters at home in a fair and above board manner Mr. Morrow has made for himself many good friends.

Mr. Morrow received loud applause when, in discussing the school book question, he said that the fact that in Kentucky now there were 300,000 school children without their school books testified that the Stanley-Black administration had broken their pledges on the school book question with the people of Kentucky. Mr. Morrow's many oratorical flights and word pictures during the course of his address were beautiful and greatly appreciated by one of the most attentive audiences he has had throughout his travel over the state.

DEMOCRATIC SPEAKER IN AUTOMOBILE WRECK

Hon. Leonidas Redwine, of West Liberty, Morgan county, Morgan county, Democratic orator, who spoke Wednesday afternoon at Brooksville, was in an automobile wreck late yesterday afternoon near Brooksville. Mr. Redwine's machine and another came together in collision on a sharp curve and Mrs. Breeze, the wife of a Brooksville merchant, was rather badly injured. Mr. Redwine suffered a bad cut on the face.

JUDGE QUOTES HYMN WHEN DECIDING CASE

Judge Cochran Quotes "Lead Kindly Light" When Deciding Important Case.

Covington, Ky., October 22.—Hymns and law points are seldom heard in conjunction use in courts, but Federal Judge Cochran quoted "Lead Kindly Light," the late President McKinley's favorite hymn, when deciding a land case in the United States District Court, here.

He said he needed light to lead him out of the encircling gloom that surrounded the case, and that he would take but one step at a time. The case was that of the Queen Elizabeth Oil Company of Lee county, Ky., against F. M. Nowell and W. P. Rogers, of Cincinnati, and others. The company purchased land adjoining the defendant's property and claimed the latter held possession of a tract of land belonging to the company.

Judge Cochran after reviewing the case at considerable length decided in favor of the defendants and ordered the attorneys in trespass to prepare the decree, which was to the effect that the defendants recover the costs of the company and that the title of the defendants to the land in dispute is forever quieted against all claims. Judge Cochran signed the decree.

MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS IN MASON COUNTY PROVING SUCCESS

District State Illiteracy Agent Visits Mason County Moonlight Schools and Reports Them Among the State's Best—Many Are Enrolled.

Mrs. Mary Warrington, of Covington, district State Illiteracy Agent, was in Maysville and Mason county yesterday and today and with Mrs. J. B. Ross, Mason County Illiteracy Agent, visited the Moonlight Schools of the county and reports them among the best in the state of Kentucky.

The workers to eradicate illiteracy first visited the Mayslick consolidated school and the Mayslick colored school and in the latter Mrs. Warrington found the largest daily attendance of any colored school in the state. Both Mrs. Warrington and Mrs. Ross spoke at a meeting of the live Mayslick Parent-Teacher Association.

Last night Moonlight Schools at Oklahoma, Cross Roads, First District and Sixth Ward were visited and in these four moonlight schools 60 students were found at work. The Maysville colored schools were visited today and Principal Humphrey promised that his school would conduct a moonlight school for the benefit of the Maysville colored illiterates before the 1920 census was begun.

At the Cross Roads school the visitors found Aunt Martha Johnson, 74 years of age, at work in her primer. Aunt Martha walks two miles each night and carries her lantern. She said that even if she was unable to learn much about reading and writing she would be setting a good example for her many grandchildren who attend this school in the day time.

COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP FOUGHT OUT SATURDAY

Two Undeclared High School Basketball Teams Meet on Next Saturday Afternoon—Much Interest Is Shown.

The undefeated Minerva High School basketball team will meet the fast Mayslick five on the Minerva court Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in what will doubtless prove the best game of the season.

Minerva has played five games this season without spilling a single one, and the Mayslick boys, who are reputed to be the best team in the county, will go over to Minerva determined, if possible, to break Minerva's chain of victories, and thus clinch for themselves the basketball honors of the season.

The Minerva team has the backing of everybody in that community, and will undoubtedly have out the largest crowd of the season to see the boys "tie up" with the Mayslick laddies. The results of Saturday's game will be watched with interest by all followers of the sport, because the Mayslick-Minerva series will in a measure determine the championship of the county.

The game will begin promptly at 4 o'clock, and those who attend need entertain no fear of a dull contest. There'll be pep from start to finish.

PHYSICAL TRAINING IS ADOPTED IN THE SCHOOL'S COURSE

Minerva Consolidated School Is First in County to Adopt Regular Physical Training Course.

The Minerva Consolidated Schools, of which John Hurst Adams is Superintendent, has taken a forward step by adding a regular course in Physical Training to its curriculum in the upper grades and in high school, and Supervised Play in the lower grades.

Following a visit of Mr. L. F. Zerfoss, District Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., to the Minerva Schools recently, when he gave a lecture on the value of physical education and a demonstration of what could be accomplished through regular physical training, the Minerva school authorities mapped out a course in physical education, gave it a place in the day's program, and the results accomplished have fully justified the action taken.

Mr. McClellan Galbraith, Director of Athletics in the Minerva High School was put in charge of the boys' work, and Miss Harriet Haughaboo and Mrs. John Hurst Adams were assigned as physical directors for the girls. From twenty-one months experience in the services of Uncle Sam overseas, in addition to his training in college, Mr. Galbraith is admirably equipped for his work as Physical Director, and the ladies in charge of the girls' work have both had special training in this line of work in Normal School.

The regular setting-up exercises used in the U. S. Army are embodied in the course given the Minerva boys, and the same exercises with certain modifications are given to the girls. The physical training work is popular with all the students, and results in the building of better bodies are already in evidence.

WINDOW GLASS SPECTACLES NOT DANGEROUS

If you had your choice between giving up everything you have in this world and losing your eyesight, I am sure you would keep your eyes. Trouble is we never think of these things until we're brought face to face with them. Many people buy spectacles from peddlers that do more harm than window glass spectacles. ## COLD STORAGE CELLULOSE

Occasionally a patron at a movie show experiences a feeling of familiarity with some scene shown on the screen. He almost thinks he has seen that very spot, house, garden, whitewashed fence and all before. And in all likelihood he has.

The makers of movies, it seems, are occasionally pressed for time or ingenuity or something, and they insert a few hundred feet of film which has been used a year or so earlier in some other screen drama. In one case a picture of 5,000 feet of film contained 2,200 feet which had been shown in another picture a few years before.

If a recent order of the Federal Trade Commission is properly carried out, this abuse of an undiscriminating public's good nature will be eliminated. The order directs that the old parts of the film, if there must be such, be "clearly, definitely and unmistakably shown" to have been previously exhibited.

DOWN WITH THE IDLE MEN!

The non-producer must go! If there are hens out in the back yard, living a life of ease and luxury among their sisters but refusing to pay for their keep in a fair production of eggs, this is the time for them to feel the sharp edge of public disapproval.

The Department of Agriculture says that the best way to tell whether a hen will be a continuously good layer is by the time she starts to molt. If she begins to shed her feathers by the middle of August or early in September, look out for her! She is going to get her winter clothes early and not pay a cent for them either.

This is going to be a hard winter, and it will be hard enough to feed the family without shelling out for the idle and unyielding hen. Into the pot with her!

COAL SHORTAGE IN KENTUCKY FEARED

Lexington, Ky., October 22.—Higher prices with lower production and a resulting critical shortage of coal will be the effects of the proposed coal strike in Lexington if union miners refuse to operate after November 1, according to prominent coal operators here who are in touch with the Eastern Kentucky mining district. While the majority of mines on the Louisville and Nashville in Eastern Kentucky are non-union, there are enough working union men to seriously cut down production it is stated, affecting the supply to Lexington and other Central Kentucky points.

TO BRING HEROES HOME TO REST IN OUR SOIL

Fifty Million Appropriation Asked by
Bland for Removal From French
Battlefields.

Washington, October 22.—Fifty millions of dollars for the removal of American heroes of the war with Germany from the soil of France to that of the United States is proposed in a bill introduced in the House by Representative Oscar E. Bland, of Indiana. In explanation of his measure, Mr. Bland said:

"I want to call your attention to a condition that prevails with reference to the removal and re-burial of our dead heroes in France. Recently the sub-committee on Foreign Affairs of the Select Committee on Expenditures in the War Department made investigation and collected data concerning the whole situation in France. We found that the American dead there were buried in 829 cemeteries and that there were 75,318 graves. These are all identified but probably about 1,500, and some of these are being identified slowly as new facts and evidence come in. In the month of August, they identified 150 graves. The Graves Registration Service in France, which is an army organization in France, believes that it is the best thing to do to concentrate all these graves into one or more magnificent cemeteries in France, and I think they are of the impression that such action will soon be taken in Congress, so as to start them on their work of concentrating these graves. They stated to our committee that they were waiting now for a definite policy to be declared before beginning concentration. I think this is the proper thing for them to do in view of the fact that it would be a tremendous amount of trouble and expense to re-inter these bodies in France and later take them up and move them to America.

"There are the graves of 4,500,000 people who fell in this war, now sleeping in French soil. More than half of these are French. They fear an attempt on the part of America to remove these bodies, which would result in enormous economic loss to France. Besides, the future pilgrimages of American parents and relatives to the graves of their fallen heroes in France is not entirely objectionable to the Frenchman. France is naturally a haven for tourists and the French reap a great harvest from the tourists. There is not the same necessity for the removal of French bodies as there is for the removal of American bodies. The French soldier is sleeping on his own soil. The Republic is small and

NEVER SCREAMS NOR NOTHING

Here's a woman who isn't afraid of mice!
Alma Rubens isn't and says she never was. She didn't inherit women's proverbial fear of rodents. She can look one right in the eye and never scream.

It all came out during production of Miss Rubens' picturization of Leona Dalrymple's prize-winning story, "Diane of the Green Van," a new Exhibitors Mutual release.

A lot of the picture was taken in the country where Miss Rubens as "Diane" goes traveling alone in a modernized prairie schooner when she runs away from boresome society.

The country where the outdoor scenes were taken was overrun with field mice, and while other feminine members climb trees, Miss Rubens, thoroughly composed, went about her work as though mice never had meant anything in woman's life. At Pastime today.

100 ACRES OF ONE OF MASON
COUNTY'S WELL IMPROVED FARMS.

It is the M. M. and Chas. E. Rhodes farm (formerly the Alexander farm) located on the Maysville, Flemingsburg and Mt. Sterling pike; 7 miles south of Maysville and 10 miles from Flemingsburg, within a mile of Marshall Station on the L. & N. Railroad, near the little town of Lewisburg. This farm has a frontage on the above named pike and runs back to a cross pike, therefore is bounded on two sides by turnpikes. The improvements consist of a 7-room frame house, tenant house, good stock barn, and large tobacco barn, fencing better than is found on the average farm, plenty of water any kind of a season. Improvements all in good repair, and farm is ready for occupation and to work without the expenditure of a lot of money. It is a very unusual thing of late years to have a farm of this class offered at public sale in this county, but the present owners are too far from it to give it their personal attention, and for that reason are selling. Liberal terms, which will be announced on day of sale, will be given. Possession March 1st, 1920.

How Mat Cohen Spends Your Money

Facts for the Taxpayers of Kentucky

Mat S. Cohen, Commissioner of Agriculture and Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, employs more people in his department and spends more money than any other three combined departments of the State government. It is very important to the taxpayers, especially the farmers, how this money is spent.

In three years, Cohen's personal traveling expenses, which you taxpayers pay, have piled up to a total of $4,158.83, an average of $1,384.64 per year. In 1917 he charged you taxpayers $5.00 per day for ten days for attending the State Fair in addition to railroad fare and a hotel and taxicab bill of more than $100.00. Does anybody pay you to visit the State Fair?

Vouchers on file in the Auditor's office at Frankfort show what Cohen has been doing with your money. Below are a few samples of the extravagance of this man Cohen who, four years ago, solemnly promised you taxpayers to spend your money carefully and economically:

VOUCHER NO. 1941—PAID SEPT. 22, 1917.

COHEN CHARGES YOU EXTRA FOR DOING HIS JOB

The minute Cohen was elected to office he got the state legislature to raise his salary, but the legal department of the state ruled he could not have it. As Commissioner of Agriculture, Cohen is a member of all the boards in his department and his duty is to attend their meetings regularly as a part of the work for which you taxpayers pay him a salary. But Cohen charged you from $5.00 to $10.00 a day for attending meetings of various boards. The total you paid him for this was $820.00 for 83 days, an average of $7.44 per day. Easy money for answering "Here" at roll call.

Cohen was paid $100.00 upon the order of the Veterinary Examiners' Board and it was charged to the Veterinary License Fund. The Attorney General ruled the claim was illegal. Certain clerks in Cohen's department draw money in addition to their salaries. One was paid $38.00 a meeting for attending four meetings of the Live Stock Sanitary Board. She draws a regular salary of $2,100.00 a year which you taxpayers pay. Can you beat it?

Another clerk gets a salary of $1,200.00 a year and in addition she is paid an extra $400.00 as clerk of the State Board of Veterinary Examiners. Pretty soft.

WHAT'S IN THE STATE FAIR BOOKS?

On Oct. 6, the Republican State Campaign Committee asked the privilege of having the State Fair Books examined by certified public accountants. Cohen at first consented, but later denied the privilege. When threatened with a law suit, he said he would submit the request to a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, Oct. 25, a few days before the election.

The books of the State Fair belong to the taxpayers who contribute huge sums of money each year to help keep it going.

Among other items in those books are vouchers showing Mat Cohen's personal expense account. Why does Cohen object to an immediate examination of those books?

LABOR TROUBLES ARE NOW UP TO WILSON

Withdrawal of Labor Group From Conference Puts Problem Directly Up to the President.

Washington, October 23.—With labor delegates out of the Industrial Conference, restoration of industrial peace today rested with President Wilson.

Whether the president will act in an attempt to relieve the conference or whether he will seek a new method to end the recurrence of strikes and lockouts has not been decided.

The question probably will not be determined until Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, who is chairman of the conference, makes his report to the president, expected today.

The public and capital groups of the conference have announced their intention of going on with sessions, despite withdrawal of the labor group.

The general opinion here, however, was that the withdrawal practically ended any chance of arriving at a truce program, unless the labor men can be persuaded to return.

ANOTHER APPEAL IS MADE FOR CLOTHING

Rev. J. J. Dickey, Chairman of Armenian Relief Committee Again Asks For Old Clothing.

The people of Mason county have an opportunity to do a noble thing in giving clothing for the naked and starving Syrian and Armenians. In each precinct in the county a woman has been asked to canvass her territory, going to every house and soliciting clothing for these people. Anything that will protect a human body from cold is acceptable, whether it be new or worn. Men, women and children are to be saved, and must have clothing.

The case is urgent, and requires prompt action. What is done must be done quickly. The clothing must be packed and shipped by November 1 in order to reach New York City in time to be loaded on a steamer which leaves that port November 15, for "The Near East". The clothing is to be delivered to Mr. Joseph Dodson, corner of Wall and Second streets. We trust those appointed to do this work will act with great vigor and give the people a chance to relieve this distress.

Ministers and Superintendents of Sunday Schools will please call attention to this great charity.

J. J. DICKEY,
County Chairman.

NEW TONBOAT IS TO COST $40,000

The Ripley Bee says: John Donald's new tonboat is nearing completion and will be ready for the painters in a week or so. Then the machinery and engines will be placed on the boat while she is on the docks. After the launching the boat will be towed to an up-river point and three large boilers installed, which will give plenty of power. Two commodious state rooms with special bath and toilet are added features in the cabin. The material used in construction is first class, being principally Oregon fir. It is estimated the boat will cost about $40,000 when completed. It will be 150 feet long over all, will be arranged with every convenience and lighted by electricity furnished by a powerful dynamo. Mr. Donald says he is thinking of naming her "Black Betsy". He will begin the construction of 15 coal barges soon to replace the fleet of 10 barges he recently sold to the Government. He also says he will build a passenger steamer as soon as the tonboat is completed.

HOW CITIES TACKLE THE FOOD PROBLEMS NOW FACING THEM

Some Municipalities Are Rolling Up Their Sleeves to Jump Into Solving of Big Problem.

Washington, D. C., October 22.—That municipalities are tackling their local food problems in a variety of ways, some of them unusual, is evidenced by reports received by the city marketing division of the Bureau of Markets, United States Department of Agriculture.

From establishing curb markets, remodeling or building retail market houses, efforts of cities have expanded until some are actually selling food supplies, while one city of about 65,000 population is operating a farm and selling produce from it at retail.

How One City Sells Food
Houston, Texas, which has a municipality owned retail market house, has taken over three stalls in the building and is handling fruits and vegetables in competition with its tenants. In order to be fair to other retailers it charges itself with all overhead expenses paid by other dealers, including rent, and also pays wages higher than those paid in other stalls. Reports on ten weeks' operation of the city-managed stalls show that it is possible to buy and sell produce in competition with local merchants at both a direct and indirect saving to consumers. The experiment is to be enlarged to include food products other than fruits and vegetables and is said to be already serving as a stabilizing influence on prices in that city market. Competing merchants have become interested in the methods of doing business of the city-operated stalls and appear anxious to try out practices that would enable them to lower their prices.

A City Goes Into Farming
Allentown, Pa., has gone into farming on a farm acquired for other purposes which, through changes in municipal plans, was lying idle. Under the direction of one of the city aldermen this farm is producing vegetables and selling them at retail in competition with shipped-in produce. The farm also feeds 1,000 head of hogs on city garbage. Local advocates of the plan now propose to include the use of an old brewery as a storage warehouse for potatoes and other products grown by local farmers, so as to lessen the city's dependence on shipped-in products.

Although the Bureau of Markets, through its city marketing division, is keeping in touch with developments in many cities and is compiling information for use in answering inquiries, it states that it would be glad to hear from any cities, not as yet reached by formal inquiries, which are working on local food problems through municipally owned shops and by other methods differing from those that have been followed in the past. The bureau plans to make available information in regard to the success and failures of cities in their efforts to solve their food problems in order that municipalities contemplating special action may have the benefit of the experience of communities faced with similar conditions.

MINERS EXPECTED TO REJECT PROPOSITION

Action of Coal Miners Today Is Expected to Be a Rejection of Secretary Wilson's Plan.

Washington, October 23.—Action of the coal miners and operators, today, on Secretary of Labor Wilson's proposal for the settlement of their differences will determine the future course of the Government in an effort to avert the strike of 500,000 coal miners called for November 1. The proposal would grant the miners an increased wage, but ignores the union demands for a 36-hour week.

Operators and miners met separately in secret session, this morning, to consider the proposals, and a joint conference with Secretary Wilson was set for this afternoon, when the final answer was to be given.

"We will reject Secretary Wilson's proposal in toto," declared John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers, just before going into conference. It is indicated that the proposal will be accepted by the operators' representatives.

If either side refuses, the conference, which has been in session here since Tuesday, will come to an end, and Government officials will turn to other methods to avert a nation-wide fuel famine.

Public Sale

Of a Well Improved, Well Located Small Farm

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30th

At 10 O'clock

Mr. John W. Wilson, having bought a much larger farm, has authorized us to offer to the highest bidder his small farm of 62 acres, located right in the town of Rectorville. On this farm there is a six-room frame house, tobacco barn, cream station, and the usual outbuildings that go to make up a well improved small farm. The larger portion of the farm is in grass, much of which is blue grass.

There are many things about this farm that should appeal to the man with a family looking for a small farm, chief of which is the advantages of a high school right at your door, creamery station on the farm which is leased to the French Bauer people that brings a good annual rental, place has a good frontage on the pike which would give you the opportunity to sell off a part of the land at a big figure any time you would offer it. We are putting this farm up to sell and not see what it is worth, so if you are not there to buy it when it is knocked down, don't blame us if you have to spend the winter running around looking for a place to move to March 1st. Terms will be made known on day of sale, but will be reasonable.

JOHN W. WILSON, Owner.

Because of extreme nervousness, Miss Capitola Bean, daughter of Edward Bean and wife, took a dose of sugar of lead at the family home in Hillsboro, Ohio, and for several hours was in a critical condition.

On the afternoon she attempted her life, Miss Bean telephoned a girl friend, inviting her to accompany her to Leesburg. The friend, Miss Thelma Brown, called at the Bean home, and after conversing with her a few minutes Miss Bean excused herself and ran upstairs. An instant later her screams were heard and when Miss Brown and Miss Bean's mother ran upstairs they found Miss Bean suffering from the effects of drinking a quantity of a sugar of lead preparation which was kept in the home for use in ivy poisoning.
